

Terms & Conditions of Boat Hire

Heritage Narrow Boats Limited

We recommend that you read these conditions carefully. They are part of the agreement and contain legal obligations and liabilities of the Hirer.

1. Definitions

In these conditions and the agreement: -

“the Company” means Heritage Narrow Boats Limited.

“the Hirer” means the person or persons named in the booking confirmation. Where there is more than one Hirer they shall all be individually responsible and liable under the agreement.

“the Conditions” mean the conditions set out in this form.

“the price” means the price for the booking set out in the booking confirmation.

“the start date” means the date when booking starts as set out in the booking confirmation.

“the end date” means the date when the booking ends as set out in the booking confirmation.

2. Booking Agreement

A booking is a legal agreement. Submission of a completed booking form is an offer by the Hirer to hire and the booking agreement is made only if and when the Company confirms the booking by written booking confirmation. Telephone bookings do not create legal agreements and any offer by the Company to hold a reservation is not legally binding. The agreement includes these conditions which the client accepts having read and agreed them.

The entire contract between the Company and the Hirer is contained in these Conditions and the booking form and no representations, terms, warranty or condition expressed or implied shall be deemed to be or have been made or agreed or imported by reference to any other writing, advertisement or conversation. No agent, servant or representative of the Company has any right to alter or vary or waive any of these conditions. Nor is any such person authorized to undertake any liability whatsoever on behalf of the Company. These conditions can only be varied with written permission of the Company signed by a director of the Company. The Hirer acknowledges that no statement or representation which may have been made by or on behalf of the Company induced the Hirer to enter into the contract and that any such statements or representations do not form part of the contract. Any liability of the Company and any remedy of the Hirer in respect of any such statement or representation is excluded save in so far as liability in respect of any statement or representation may not be excluded by law.

3. Group Bookings, Age Limits and Unsuitable Hirers

The full names and addresses and ages (if under 21) of all members of the Hirer’s party must be entered on the Booking Form. Any changes before the start date or during the hire period must be authorized by the Company. The Company holds the right to not accept bookings from school parties, youth groups, all male or all female parties or persons under 21 years old.

The Company may at its discretion cancel the booking and refuse to hand over the boat to any person or group who in its opinion is not suitable to take charge on the grounds of age, ill health, disability, inexperience, suspected influence of alcohol or drugs or any other reason. In this event and provided that the Hirer is not in breach of any other condition the Company will refund any monies paid and the contract shall be discharged without further liability on either party.

Terms & Conditions of Boat Hire

Heritage Narrow Boats Limited

The Company may repossess the boat at any time if in the opinion of the Company the Hirer is unsuitable for any reason or if the Hirer is not behaving responsibly or if the boat or any persons are at risk. The Company may waive the price less a £25 administration charge if the boat is re-let. In the event of the operator being unable to re-book the boat the hirer will remain responsible for the full hire price unless covered by the company's cancellation protection scheme.

5. Hire Period, Collection and Return of Boat

Boats will normally be available between 1.30 pm and 3.30 pm on the start date and will be returned by 9.00 am at the latest and vacated by 09.30 am on the end date or as otherwise shown in the booking confirmation. The Hirer must notify the Company of any likely delay in arrival as soon as possible by letter or if this is not practicable by telephone.

Before the Hirer takes the boat over the Company may give the Hirer such instructions, demonstrations and trials as it thinks fit and require the Hirer to check and sign the contents inventory and handover sheet.

In the event that the boat is not available because of circumstances beyond the Company's control (for example damage, mechanical breakdown, late return) the Company may substitute a boat of similar accommodation but if no such boat is available the Company shall refund any payments made but shall not otherwise be liable and the contract shall be discharged.

The boat must be returned to base by 9.00 am and vacated by the Hirer by 09.30 am on the end date and the Hirer is responsible to allow enough time to ensure prompt return. In the event of delay the Hirer shall be liable to pay the sum of £45 per hour or part hour of the delay in returning the boat or giving possession and to indemnify the Company in respect of all other expenses and losses it may sustain by reason of such delay including any loss of or claim under subsequent booking. This condition is strictly enforced in the interest of subsequent hirers of the boat because the Company may not have time to fit out and deliver the boat on time to subsequent hirers.

The Hirer is responsible to return the boat to base. If the Hirer fails to do so except for unavoidable cause the Hirer will be liable to pay to the Company the cost of recovering the boat.

The Company reserves the right without liability to hand the boat over at and/or to require the boat to be returned to a site other than the designated boat yard if operational circumstances make this necessary.
